

Unit 14

Sequence 5

Memory game: How many words do you remember?

A child enters the centre of the circle, plays an instrument and tells the matching word at the same time. The other children do the matching movements and count how many words the child has remembered.

Sowing a summer flower

As a closure of the project seeds of a flower are being sown with the children!